

1000420707

A wedding is a good thing right? Wrong a wedding is like a funeral because a marriage never last.

Organization/Purpose: Score 1

- The paper has no discernible plot.
- The situation, setting, characters, events are not established; all that is established is the writer's view that marriages do not last.
- No appropriate transitional devices
- No event sequence

Evidence/Elaboration: Score 1

- No elaboration
- Setting is a wedding; characters are those being married, but no details of a specific event are provided.
- No concrete imagery or description

Conventions: Score 0

- Run-on second sentence
- Subject-verb agreement ("a marriage never last")
- Two sentences total